4Days 3Nights Charming Pangkor Island

In the 17th century, Pangkor was a refuge for local fishermen, merchants and pirates. It has a land area of only 8 square kilometers, and a population of approximately 25,000 islanders. The islanders are mainly fishermen living in scattered settlements. The locals believe Pulau Pangkor is protected by spirits hence its local name Spirit Island. Be spellbound by the charming mix of fishing settlements and resorts along with its beautiful beaches and resort amenities.
