Tasmania's capital - Hobart the state capital and one of Australia's oldest cities is the eleventh most populous city of the Australian island state of Tasmania. Combining heritage charm and cultural diversity in a setting of exceptional beauty. A river-side city with a busy harbour, its mountain backdrop offers fine views over the beautiful Georgian buildings, numerous parks and compact suburbs below and perhaps the most stress-free and engaging city. Hobart belies the conservative and provincial reputation it has amongst some mainlanders. There's not a lot you won't find here, with a thriving festival scene and a real sense of history. For walking, eating and just soaking in the atmosphere it can't be bettered
