LONDON

OXFORD & THE COTSWOLDS

London is one of the world's most vibrant capitals. Yet just an hour away is a different world full of charming English villages, rolling hills, country pubs and historic cities.

Oxfordshire and the picturesque region known as the Cotswolds is a 'must-do' destination of Bicester Village, 60 minutes from London, lies perfectly placed to be incorporated into any such tourism programme.

First, there's a countryside full of delightful villages such as Stow-on-the-Wold and Broadway, with beautiful old buildings and cottages, welcoming pubs, restaurants and English tearooms. A tour of Oxford must include the university buildings and their steeped in history. Blenheim Palace was the birthplace of Sie Winston Churchill. Waddesdon Manor, home of the Rothschild banking family, is a magnificent Renaissance-style manor full of art treasures, while Cliveden, site of the infamous Profumo affair, is one of the finest stately homes in Britain.

All can be combined with a visit to Bicester Village to create an enjoyable sightseeing programme for any client.
